New Publications.

For we speak that we know, and testify of that we have seen."

This Story of Southern Life is destined to produce an impression upon the nation, powerful, far-reaching, and permanent. As a Novel, merely, it equals in interest the most brillard fictious of medern times. But it is chiefly in relation the institution of AMERICAN SLAVERY that the book will awaken the deepest interest. The thrilling interest to whill awaken the deepest interest, the trailing interest to whill awaken the deepest interest. The thrilling interest to whill awaken the deepest interest in the same web of fate, are presented with wonderful vividness. It is not a relargement of old stories, but an original creation; and it will appeal to the pride of the white race writh NEW ASD FAXVILING FORCE.

But a baim, infexible adherence to TRUTH marks every page. Nothing of the 'blue fire' of melo drama is seen, nor is the deepest tragedy marred by the screech and contortions of accord-rails actress.

No reader, however indifferent to novels in general, can possibly leave off without finishing it. The preliminary edition has been read by a number of the most content literary men in the country, as well as by persons of wender literary men in the country, as well as by persons of wender literary men in the country, as well as by persons of wender literary men in the country, as well as by persons of average intellect and culture.
